The above records shall be prepared and maintained in accordance with the specifications outlined under the Ontario Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, 2010 and Ontario Regulation 395/21.

A record of the issuance of all keys to every lock controlled by the CCC will be entered into the corporate record. This will include the number of the key if available, the lock for what it is for and to whom it was issued to, and when the key was returned a motion by the Board of Directors is required to authorize the issuing a key that provides access to the entrances of the CCC. An exception would be if it to be a rental for one day or less. The Director responsible for issuing the keys could issue a key on payment of a deposit.

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The directors shall see that all necessary books and records of the Corporation required by the by—laws of the Corporation or by any applicable statute or law are regularly and properly

MEMBERSHIP

18. The membership shall consist of the applicants for the incorporation of the Corporation and such other individuals and such corporations, partnerships, and other legal entities as are admitted as members by the board of directors. Memberships are current from January 1st to December 31st of that year.

Members may resign by resignation in writing which shall be effective upon acceptance thereof by the board of directors.

In case of resignation, a member shall remain liable for payment of any assessment or other sum levied or which became payable by him to the corporation prior to acceptance of his resignation.

Each member in good standing shall be entitled to one vote on each question arising at any special or annual meetings of the members. Members and other legal entities may vote through a duly authorized proxy.

Each member shall promptly be informed by the Secretary of their admission as a member. The Secretary is responsible for keeping a register of members.

The directors or any committee of directors have the power to discipline a member or to terminate their membership. Any disciplinary action or termination of membership must be done in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner. A procedure is fair and reasonable if,

- (a) a member is given at least 15 days notice via registered mail, of a disciplinary action or termination with reasons; and
- (b) the member is given an opportunity to be heard, orally, in writing or in another format permitted by the corporation's articles or by-laws, not less than five days before the disciplinary action or termination of membership becomes effective, by the person with authority to impose or revoke the disciplinary action or termination.

ADJOURNMENTS

22. Any meetings of the Corporation or of the directors may be adjourned to any time and date and such business may be transacted at such adjourned meeting as might have been transacted at the original meeting from which such adjournment took place. No notice shall be required of any such adjournment. Such adjournment may be made notwithstanding that no quorum is present.

Any meetings of the Corporation or of the directors may be adjourned to any time and from time to time and such business may be transacted at such adjourned meeting as might have been transacted at the original meeting from which such adjournment took place No notice shall be required of any such adjournment. Such adjournment may be made notwithstanding that no quorum is present.

BY-LAWS

23. Unless the articles or the by-laws otherwise provide, the directors may by resolution make, amend, or repeal any by-law that regulates the activities or affairs of the corporation, except in respect of a matter referred to in clause 103 (1) (g), (k) or (l) of the Ontario Not-for-Profit Corporations Act. The directors shall submit the by-law, amendment, or repeal to the members at the next meeting of the members, and the members may confirm, reject or amend the by-law, the amendment or the repeal by ordinary resolution.

A two-thirds majority of the current members present or by proxy is required to amend, create, or repeal a by-law. The by-law, amendment or repeal is effective from the date of the resolution of the directors. If the by-law, amendment, or repeal is confirmed or confirmed as amended by the members, it remains effective in the form in which it was confirmed. The by-law, amendment, or repeal ceases to have effect if it is not submitted by the directors to the members as required or if it is rejected by the members. If a by-law, amendment, or repeal ceases to have effect, a subsequent resolution of the directors that has substantially the same purpose or effect is not effective until it is confirmed or confirmed as amended by the members.

New by-law not previously included in previous version.

VOTING OF MEMBERS

25. Subject to the provisions, if any, contained in the Letters Patent of the Corporation, each member of the Corporation shall at all meetings of members be entitled to one vote and he may vote by proxy. Such proxy need not be a member but before voting shall produce and deposit with the Secretary the signed Meeting Proxy form. No member shall be entitled either in person or by proxy to vote at meetings of the Corporation unless they have paid all dues or fees, if any, then payable by them.

At all meetings of members, every question shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present in person or represented by proxy unless otherwise required by the by-laws of the Corporation, or by law. Every question shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands unless a poll be demanded by any member. Upon a show of hands, every member having voting rights shall have one vote, and unless a poll be demanded, a declaration by the President (Chairperson) that a resolution has been carried or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the Corporation shall be admissible in evidence as prima facie proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes accorded in favour of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn, but if a poll be demanded and not withdrawn the question shall be decided by a majority of votes given by the members present in person or by proxy, and such poll shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman shall direct and the result of such poll shall be deemed the decision of the Corporation in general meeting upon the matter in question.

Two election officials will be appointed to supervise the election and to count the show of hands or to count the ballots for the election of the Directors as members of the Board. The seven members that are standing for election, having the highest number of votes cast will be elected as Directors.

Subject to the provisions, if any, contained in the Letters Patent of the Corporation, each member of the Corporation shall at all meetings of members be entitled to one vote and he may vote by proxy. Such proxy need not himself be a member but before voting shall produce and deposit with the Secretary sufficient appointment in writing from his constituent or constituents. No member shall be entitled either in person or by proxy to vote at meetings of the Corporation unless he has paid all dues or fees, if any, then payable by him.
